A vast canvas of memorable characters across a kaleidoscope of cultures. her epic story feels like an authentic reflection of a world full of sadness, joy and surprise. The Observer A spellbinding story of forbidden love. Three continents, three decades, three very disparate lives: Savitri, intuitive and charismatic, grows up among the servants of a pre-war English household in Madras. But the traditional customs of her Brahmin family clash against English upper-class prejudice, threatening her love for the privileged son of the house. Nataraj, raised as the son of an idealistic doctor in rural South India, finds life in London heady, with girls and grass easily available. until he is summoned back home to face raw reality. Saroj, her fire hidden by outward reserve, comes of age in Guyana, South America. When her strict, orthodox Hindu father goes one step too far she finally rebels against him. and even against her gentle, apparently docile Ma. But Ma harbours a deep secret. one that binds these three so disparate lives and hurtles them towards a truth...
