Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Method of Teaching Language in the Primary Grades The series of lessons in this Bulletin is the outcome of an attempt to make certain language forms matters of habit; that is, to so fix them that when the necessity for their use arises, the child need not go over in his mind any definition previously learned, nor think of any rule by which he could choose the correct form to be used. The general idea has been to get the attention upon the form first, and gradually to lead the child to the place where the subject-matter only is in mind. The devices given are those used by the student-teachers in the Training Department of the San Francisco State Normal School. They are by no means original, having been taken from many sources and worked over by the teachers, from whose reports they have been taken for this Bulletin. The method used is to bring the proper setting before the child, either actually or in imagination. The teacher gives the proper form to be...
