Their inheritance and money is being gambled away by their uncle and they have one of two choice to make. Wait until they are twenty-one or marry to get their money. After a face to face assault by their uncle, Emmy has the idea that they should run away to become mail order brides. Carrow, the wild child of the twins, agrees and off the go to the Washington Territory to marry their men. Washington Territory - 1869 For Carrow that man is Clayton Stone, a well off man with a good paying job at the railroad, who has kept a few things to himself in his letters. But when a tall, darkly handsome man comes your way and offers you adventure and your parents last gift on a silver platter what would you do? Marry him and let him sooth your sorrow and your body? Welcome to the West. Once Upon a Mail Order Lady: Mail Order Brides: Book Two It's Emmy's turn at her own tale and she is happy in Seattle with her new husband. But crimes are being committed against women and there is a secret as to why. Emmy spots her Uncle and runs to tell her husband, but she fall victim to the twisted man committing the crimes. After fighting for her life and taken a beating that causes her to lose her memory, Emmy is rescued by Black Hawk, a Native American, the brother of a...
