Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Student s Heat In writing this book, the author has aimed at presenting in as simple a form as possible all those branches of the subject which permit of treatment by elementary mathematics, and with the exception of Arts. 283 and 300, only a knowledge of elementary algebra and geometry has been assumed on the part of the student. It is therefore hoped that the work will be found suitable for the highest forms of secondary schools as well as for technical schools and colleges and for those reading for the Intermediate and Pass Degrees of the Universities. The book is based on the notes accumulated by the author for some years, a large portion of these being derived from the lectures delivered by his former teacher, Prof. C. H. Lees, D.Sc., F.R.S., and for any merit which the book possesses the author is accordingly indebted to him. While the author has endeavoured to avoid plagiarism as far as possible; the subject is too old a one for him to hope that this has been entirely achieved. The text has been very freely illustrated with diagrams, and the author is greatly indebted to the publishers for their courtesy and consideration in this direction. He also desires to express his gratitude to Messrs. Philip Harris and Co., of Birmingham, for the loan of blocks for some sixteen illustrations, to the Cambridge Scientific Instrument Co. for Fig. 195, and to Mr. Edward Arnold for Fig. 60. A large number of questions set at various public examinations have, by permission, been included at the ends of the chapters, and it is hoped these will greatly increase the...
